

The Open University | Pembroke College, Oxford | William Morris Sixth Form
in conjunction with the Mayor of London and the Department for Education, supported by the London Schools Excellence Fund

The London Centre for Languages and Cultures
Easter Study Skills School
Saturday 18th April 2015
William Morris Sixth Form, Hammersmith

Time	Activity
09.45-10:00	ARRIVAL & REGISTRATION
10:00-10:15	Introduction and divide into language groups
10:15-11.30	Grammar and Writing Skills workshops: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Tenses & conjugation - Expressing an opinion and making a balanced argument
11.30-11.45	BREAK
11.45-12.30	Exam Skills: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Reading comprehension exercises - Exam skills mini-workshop
12.30-13.30	LUNCH
13.30-14.45	Putting Into Practice Students research an exam topic and produce a piece of argumentative or discursive writing based on the skills revised in the morning Parallel Speaking Skills Sessions with tutors Each student will have 5-10 minutes of one-to-one speaking practice with their undergraduate tutor
14.45-15.00	Final Plenary Discussion and Q&A about languages at university: where languages can take you, and why you should study them
15.00	DEPARTURE